Gen Blue 2025 Recap

Gen Blue had great energy this year! With 2500 attendees, there were numerous opportunities for networking and making powerful connections. If you missed it, try to speak to someone who attended who can share some of their most valuable takeaways.

A lot of focus was on professional development sessions to help you thrive in today's market and stay ahead of the trends. Panel discussions were held on best practices of social media, how to give a great referral and get more connected, succeeding in the global luxury market, how to use philanthropy and giving back to your community as an asset to your business, and, of course, Artificial Intelligence.

AI dominated the conversations where leaders embraced smart, strategic adoption of AI without losing the human touch. Agents packed the rooms that featured a ChatGPT masterclass to discover how AI can transform marketing, client engagement, and productivity. The Coldwell Banker AI Innovator of the Year wowed the audience with agents showcasing their groundbreaking AI applications in real estate and giving agents a roadmap on how to become the #1 agent in their market.

Q4 Sprint Plan

Q4 in the Caribbean has its own rhythm—rainy days, visitors returning home for the holidays, offices closing early, and slower bank/attorney turnarounds. Small, consistent moves now will carry you through Christmas and into a strong January.

Why Q4 Matters

- Diaspora Homecoming: Past clients + referrals arrive for the holidays—be visible before they land.
- Office Slowdowns: Banks, valuers, and attorneys may work shorter hours; build buffer time into every promise.
- Tourism Lift: Short-term rental interest spikes—great time to reposition listings and attract investor buyers.

The 90-Minute Sprint (run once this week, then every Monday)

Minutes 0-15: Pipeline Triage (A/B/C)

- A = 0-30 days: Live buyers/sellers, active negotiations, cash/international enquiries.
- B = 30-60 days: Prepping to list, mortgage pre-checks, valuation pending.

- C = 60-120 days: Nurture—diaspora trips, relocation planning, investment research.

- Task: Tag your top 30 contacts A/B/C in your CRM/WhatsApp labels and book the next touch for each (voice note or message).

Minutes 15-45: Listing Momentum Reset

- Swap in a new lead photo (bright, airy) and a 30-second “Why This Home” video (phone is fine).

- Reorder photos to tell an island story: curb appeal → breeze/light → outdoor living → sea/mountain views.

- Choose one lever: small price band test or a buyer incentive (closing cost help, furniture inclusion).

- Task: Pick one stale listing; implement two of the above by the end of today.

Minutes 45-90: Five Relationship Touches

- 2 value messages: “Rainy-season roof check / hurricane-strap tip” or “holiday rental demand note.”

- 1 voice note: Warm check-in (people love hearing your voice).

- 1 neighborhood mini-video: Beach access, school run, market day, commute at 8 am.

- Task: Send and log replies and next steps.

Weekly Cadence (light & doable)

- Daily Power 30: 5 contacts, 1 follow-up video, move 1 file forward (doc signed, valuation ordered, attorney looped in).

- Mid-week: Post one 30-sec listing video (IG/FB/WhatsApp Status).

- Friday: Send 3 seller updates: views, enquiries, and next push for the coming week.

Micro-Scripts (copy/paste, tweak the flavour)

SOI value text (homeowner):

“Quick island update: buyer interest is strongest where homes show bright + move-in ready. A small refresh of photos and a 30-second video tends to lift enquiries within 72 hours. Want me to review your listing plan?”

Price-band test (seller):

“We can try a tighter price band and refresh the first five photos + a short video. Aim: new eyes in three days.”

Holiday invite (diaspora):

“If you’ll be on island next month, I can line up a viewing hour with 3-4 best-fit homes in one go.”

Buyer nudge (concessions):

“Several sellers are open to closing-cost help or furniture inclusion to move before year-end. Want me to shorten good-value options for a quick tour?”
